

There's nothing quite like seeing your hard work on display! Whether it's a quilt, garden produce, baked goods, photography, crafts, or another project you've been working on, the fair is your chance to share your talents and celebrate our community.

Registration is open now!

Open Class Exhibitors:

Stop by the Kiowa County Extension Office to pre-fill your entry cards, or complete them during check-in at the fair. Be sure to check the age divisions listed below to find the category that's right for you.

4-H Members:

Register through FairEntry by July 9. When entering exhibits, use your 4-H age as of January 1. Be sure to review the age divisions listed below to ensure you're entering in the correct category.

Need more information?

Fair books are available at locations around town, online, or by scanning the QR code on the third page. You'll find everything you need, including entry information, classes, and schedule.

We can't wait to see all the incredible exhibits and talents on display at this year's fair. We hope you'll join us and be part of the tradition!

Kiowa County Fair 4-H Family Survival Guide

Fair time is finally here! After months of hard work, preparation, and learning, it's time to celebrate all that our 4-H members and families have accomplished. Fair week is filled with learning opportunities, friendly competition, fun, and community. It is a busy and exciting time that always seems to fly by in the blink of an eye, so as you continue preparing for this special week, here are a few things to keep in mind.

One of the best parts of fair is the opportunity to make lasting memories with family and friends. Fair brings us all together in one place to showcase our projects, support one another, and celebrate both our own accomplishments and the successes of others. What makes 4-H unique is that it is truly a family-centered organization. While youth are at the heart of the program, the support, encouragement, and involvement of families make the experience even more meaningful.

As fair week approaches, I encourage you to take time to enjoy the experience. Cheer on fellow exhibitors, celebrate the small victories, and make memories with your family and friends. The ribbons and awards are wonderful, but the friendships, life lessons, and moments shared together are what will be remembered long after the fair is over.

As you organize projects and finish your fair preparations, don't forget the essentials. Pack sunscreen, water bottles, comfortable shoes, and anything else that will help keep both your family and your animals comfortable during the week. A little planning ahead can make fair week more enjoyable for everyone.

I hope your fair preparations are going smoothly. If you have any questions or need assistance, please don't hesitate to contact the office. We look forward to seeing all of your hard work on display and wish everyone a safe, successful, and memorable fair!
